Conestoga College graduates get head-start on CSCMP

Supply Chain Management Association Ontario (SCMAO) and Conestoga College announce agreement for graduates of Purchasing Diploma and Supply Chain and Operations Management Programs

SCMAO and Conestoga College's School of Business and Hospitality have reached an agreement that will provide an efficient path for graduates of the Conestoga's Purchasing Diploma and Supply Chain and Operations Management programs to pursue their Certified Supply Chain Management Professional (SCMP) designation.

The CSCMP designation is an internationally accredited certification of strategic supply chain leadership, and is Canada's most widely held designation in supply chain management. To grant advanced standing, SCMAO assesses the curriculum for each program component.

This agreement applies to graduates of Conestoga College's Business Purchasing Diploma Program who have obtained an overall minimum cumulative Grade Point Average (GPA) of 3.0. The exemptions are:

- 1. Module 1: Supply Chain Management provided that the SCMA Case Study Report Writing online course is undertaken
- 2. Module 2: Procurement and Supply Management
- 3. Module 3: Logistics and Transportation
- 4. Module 7: Supply Chain Management for the Public Sector

This agreement also applies to graduates of Conestoga College's Business Supply Chain and Operations Management Program who have earned an overall minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0. The exemptions are:

- 1. Module 1: Supply Chain Management provided that the SCMA Case Study Report Writing online course is undertaken
- 2. Module 2: Procurement and Supply Management
- 3. Module 3: Logistics and Transportation
- 4. Module 4: Operations and Process Management
- 5. Interactive Workshop 3: Communication and Relational Skills
